

How America Is Viewed From Abroad

We are pleased to invite you to meet with the 2009 Daniel Pearl Fellows from Egypt and Pakistan, who will share with you their experiences in America at the Los Angeles Press Club, on Thursday, August 13, 2008 -- reception at 7:00 p.m., discussion at 7:30 p.m.

Established in 2003, in partnership with the Alfred Friendly Press Fellowships, the Daniel Pearl Fellowship brings promising, mid-career foreign journalists to work for six months in U.S. newsrooms.

Rob Eshman, Editor in Chief, The Jewish Journal of Greater Los Angeles, will moderate the discussion with Sherine and Irfan on how America is viewed from abroad, especially in Pakistan, Egypt and other Muslim countries, and how their personal experiences fit those views.

Shahzada Irfan Ahmed, 37, is the first Daniel Pearl Fellow to work at the Houston Chronicle. He has been Assistant Editor and Special Correspondent for The News International since 2003, covering the economy, health, human rights, information technology, law, social issues and telecommunications. He also works as a visiting lecturer at state-owned Punjab University where he teaches master's students in Development Journalism.

Sherine El Madany, 27, is the third Daniel Pearl Fellow to join the staff of the Los Angeles Times. She has been at The Daily News Egypt since 2007, as a business reporter covering local and regional business news, including banking, corporate affairs, foreign exchange, inflation, investment, poverty, privatization and trade.

The event will take place at:
Steve Allen Theater
4773 Hollywood Boulevard
Los Angeles, CA 90027-5333
Admission is Free
(Parking is available in the back of the building at no charge)

If you would like to attend, please RESERVE YOUR TICKETS HERE by August 11. Seating is limited.

We would like to thank the Los Angeles Press Club for hosting this event. We look forward to seeing you there.

Best regards,
