

OCT. 1-31: DANIEL PEARL MUSIC DAYS AT UNT

The College of Music is dedicating ALL of its October concerts as part of the Daniel Pearl World Music Days, affirming the ideals of tolerance, friendship and our shared humanity.

This annual international event is inspired by the life and work of Wall Street Journal journalist and classical violinist Daniel Pearl who was kidnapped and murdered in Pakistan in 2002 and who would have celebrated his 40th birthday on October 10, 2008.

To underscore the importance of Daniel Pearl Music Days, there will be screenings on campus of the 2007 film, A Mighty Heart, starring Angelina Jolie.

Tuesday, September 23rd, 8:00 pm
Honors College Common Room

Thursday, September 25th, 5:00 pm
College of Music Recital Hall

Tuesday, September 30th, 5:00 pm
College of Music Recital Hall

Daniel's father, Judea Pearl will speak at UNT on October 20th in the Lyceum as part of the EncoUNTERS International Speakers Series.

For more information consult www.danielpearlmusicdays.org

If you wish to volunteer to help with UNT's efforts, please contact Jennifer Lane at Jennifer.Lane@unt.edu.